

Capital Region Land Conservancy invites sponsors to support its annual Fields, Forests + Streams event . . . with a twist. Due to COVID-19, CRLC is taking FF+S virtual and transforming it into the 2020 Conservation Games that kick off on October 8 and culminate with a live-streamed “Un-Gala” celebration on Sunday, October 25. Team Fields, Team Forests, and Team Streams will compete in a three-week fundraising competition in an effort to raise contributions to support CRLC’s land conservation efforts in the Richmond region.

This FREE online event is designed to engage participants to give of their “time, talent, and treasure.” The 2020 Conservation Games will include team-only programming such as themed webinars, videos, and opportunities to volunteer in the community. In addition, the culminating Fields, Forests + Streams “medal ceremony” will present awards to teams as well as highlight land conservation accomplishments over the past year and feature special remarks on CRLC’s 15th Anniversary.
